N. H. N. A. FALL MEETING IN PORTSMOUTH
SEPTEMBER 20

New Hampshire Numismatic Association will hold its Fall meeting at Holiday Inn, Jct. of Rts. 1, 4, and 95, Portsmouth. The regular monthly coin and stamp bourse will be held during the day with Charles Seaman, chairman. John Wiggin and Mark Gazaway with Seaman are the committee for the meeting. Business session is planned for 3 P.M.

Any clubs interested in sponsoring the N.H.N.A. Convention next April should make a bid for it at this meeting. Our part in hosting the New England Numismatic Association Convention at Sheraton-Wayfarer, Oct. 22-25 will also be discussed. It is customary to present a uniface bronze medal to the best exhibit at this meeting. If you want a bourse table contact Seaman, Box 698, Ogunquit, Maine.

TRI-STATE COLLECTORS' EXHIBITION
SEPT. 26-27, CONCORD COMMUNITY CENTER

A wide variety of interesting exhibits attracts many people to Tri-State Collectors' Exhibition each year. The bourse has dealers from a wide area with both coins and stamps. The 15th annual show is earlier than usual on account of the NENA show at Bedford, N.H. However, response has been very good and an excellent show is anticipated. Bourse chairman, Leon Savoy, 20 Holly St., Concord, N.H. has a few tables available at $25.

There will be wooden nickels at 2 for 25¢ and special cachets will show the State House. The special postal station will have old stamps for sale at face value.

The many fine trophies including the Governor's Trophy offer a strong incentive to enter exhibits. Contact Harold Pearson, Epsom, Helen Young, or William Upton, Concord, or Louis Bergeron, Franklin for a brochure listing classes, etc.

Maine Numismatic Association Fall Show will be Sept. 12-13, at Holiday Inn, Augusta, Maine.

NEW ENGLAND NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION TO HOLD CONVENTION IN BEDFORD, N.H.

The biggest numismatic event ever held in New Hampshire will take place Oct. 22, 23, 24, & 25, 1970 at the Sheraton-Wayfarer, Bedford, N.H. New Hampshire Numismatic Association is hosting the 26th Annual Conference and Convention of New England Numismatic Association, the first in New Hampshire.

More than 40 dealers will have bourse tables, with a wide variety of choice items including Ancient coins and rarities of all kinds. Grovenor C. Nudd, 15 Cross St., Penacook, N.H., bourse chairman, has a few tables available at $65.

We are working on details for exhibits of a N.H. colonial coin which is rarer than the 1913 nickel or 1804 dollar. Franklin Mint will exhibit their products and show movies of their operation. There are many fine awards offered for competitive exhibits in 8 different classes, and everyone will receive recognition. Write Exhibit Chairman William Prince, Sr., Raymond, for information and entry blank. He still has a few exhibit cases for sale at $10.

Colony Coin Co. will conduct an auction of choice and popular items on Friday evening and Saturday afternoon. Silver medals numbered 1 thru 26 excluding #12 will be auctioned. Bids may be sent to Box 391, Concord, N.H. before Oct. 20. Medals include bronze $1, gold plated $2.50, silver $5, Official 3 hole holder is $2.50. Wooden nickels are 8 for $1. Orders may be sent to Box 391, Concord, N.H. with checks made out to NENA.

Program starts with Early Bird reception Thursday evening at 8 P.M. Registration and hospitality room open at 9 A.M. Friday and Saturday. Dealers and exhibitors set up from 10 A.M. to 12 Friday and the bourse and exhibit will be open to the public at noon Friday until 10 P.M.; 10 A.M. to 10 P.M. Saturday and 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. Sunday. A banquet with speaker will be held Saturday evening, and a club activities breakfast will be held Sunday morning.

ANNIVERSARY MEDAL ISSUES POPULAR FOR N.H. TOWN CELEBRATIONS

Anniversary medals have been issued by 19 New Hampshire towns in the last two years, compared to 17 in the previous 4 years as listed in Fall 1968 Nonagon. All issues included bronze and silver medals. Several have included gold or gold plated or both. Belmont had copper also. Quantities struck vary widely from less than 10 gold to 5000 bronze for Concord. Many factors influence demand, resulting in some issues selling out quickly and high prices realized in a short time. Others hold steady when supply was ample for demand and some remain unsold.

Issue prices were $2 to $3.50 for bronze, $7.50 to $10.50 for silver, $3 to $5 for copper or gold plated, and $50 to $100 for solid gold. Colebrook gold sold at auction for $90 to $175 each. The last Harrisville bronze brought $11 at auction, and #1 silver brought over $100 in one auction. Low numbers and other special numbers are often sold at auction at several dollars over the issue price. Towns contemplating issue of medals would do well to discuss quantities, design, size, and sale practices with Leon Savoy, 20 Holly St., Concord, N.H. who has been in close touch with results of most of the issues. Leon Savoy and David Kiley prepared list at right.

WOODEN NICKELS ISSUED

Harrisville issued wooden nickels in three colors and Colebrook had four different for their celebrations this year. The Tri-State Collectors' Exhibition will have two colors, red and purple, showing a New Hampshire colonial coin with pine tree and "American Liberty". The same design is available in blue, green, and brown for the N.E.N.A. show. There are also 200 sets of 5 wooden nickels with the same design as the N.E.N.A. 1970 medal. Any of the above are available by writing Box 391, Concord, N.H. All for $2 post-paid.

DEATH OF MARVIN PERKINS IS BLOW TO N. H. N. A.

Marvin Perkins, Charter Member #8 of N.H.N.A. died suddenly June 4 at age of 48. He was an active and enthusiastic member who designed the official seal for N.H.N.A. He also designed the medal issued for the 5th anniversary of N.H.N.A. and designed one side of the 1970 medal for the New England Numismatic Association. The huge quantity of floral tributes was most impressive, showing the high esteem in which Mr. Perkins was held by his many friends. Our sincerest sympathy is extended to his fine family.

F. & M. Bailey, Nov. 21, 1862, 10¢, 25¢, and 50¢. (Probably a 5¢ also). Printed in green with value overprint in red by McFarland & Jenks, Concord, N.H. Redeemable at Bank of Newbury, Wells River, Vt. Vignettes include young eagle's head, nymphs emerging from flower bud, and female head with plumed headdress on 10¢; hen with chickens, girl's head, and flower bud with nymphs on 25¢; two children, and girl swimmer on 50¢. Since the denominations have B, C, and D respectively, it is likely that there was a 5¢ with A. Reverses printed "A. & M. BAILEY, dealer in/Dry & West India Goods/Haverhill, N.H." in oblong frame with rounded corners and fancy ornaments. Value overprinted in red. Very rare and unusual in redemption at different state from issue.

NEW HAMPSHIRE NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION

Collectors of coins and other numismatic material formed the New Hampshire Numismatic Association to promote friendship and cooperation between individuals and clubs of New Hampshire and surrounding areas. Directors include the presidents of all New Hampshire Coin clubs. Meetings held in different areas of the state feature educational programs, exhibits, social hour and trading. The annual meeting and convention held in April includes an auction and a bourse with dealers from Canada and the Northeast. Members admitted free to all meetings.

The Nonagon, a bulletin issued three times a year, includes special features on New Hampshire numismatics including Colonial Currency, early banknotes, Civil War tokens, medals and wooden nickels issued for town anniversaries, etc. Contributions are invited. Many rare items have been pictured and discussed.

Club meeting dates and activities are announced as available, as well as activities of interest in surrounding areas. Advertising is accepted at the rate of \$8 for a full page, \$5 for a half a page, \$3 for $\frac{1}{4}$ page, or \$2 for $\frac{1}{8}$ page. Same ad 3 times for $2\frac{1}{2}$ the single rate. Advertising manager is G.C. Nudd, 15 Cross St., Penacook, N.H.

A library has been formed with many interesting books and periodicals available to members on request to Librarian Jerome G. Hurley, 18 Wilbur St., Keene, N.H.

Membership is only $1 per year for adults and 50¢ for junior members under 18. Life memberships at $50 for anyone 25 or younger, $10 for anyone 65 or older. Others add $1 for each year under age 65. Treasurer Omer Soucy, Box 652, Nashua, N.H. 03060 will issue membership cards. Join for 2 or more years at a time if you wish.
